

Community Diabetes Nurse

- Do you want to make a difference in the lives of people living with diabetes and their whanau?
- Permanent, full-time role
- Tauranga location
- Flexible working including work from home

Te Whiwhinga mahi | The opportunity

Are you an experienced diabetes nurse looking for a chance to showcase your skills in the primary sector? This is an opportunity for you to collaborate with clinicians, Iwi, Hauora, and other Allied Health Providers across the sector, to support people living with diabetes and their whanau, with a focus on Māori, Pasifika Peoples, and other vulnerable communities.

This is a welcoming environment with plenty of opportunity for growth and professional development. You will work in a flexible work environment and have the opportunity to work from home some days. If you are an agile and enthusiastic diabetes nurse – come and join us!

Ko koe tenei | About you

You'll bring to the role:

- Extensive clinical experience in long-term condition/diabetes management is preferred.
- An ability to develop and maintain complex relationships with key service stakeholders.
- A proven ability to multi-task and proactively problem solve.
- Highly developed organisation and time management skills.
- An effective communicator across a range of mediums.
- An ability to be flexible and available, as required to attend meetings outside of usual business hours.
- Proficient computer and administrative skills.
- Excellent attention to detail with the ability to identify and escalate service risks.

Ko wai mātou | About us

WBOP PHO is a joint venture partnership between Ngāi Te Rangi and Ngāti Ranginui iwi and our General Practice network.

WBOP PHO is a not-for-profit health care organisation focused on supporting and delivering community-based primary health care and wellness services directly to consumers and through supporting general practice networks and other providers across the Bay of Plenty Rōhe from Katikati to Ōpōtiki.

Rā Katinga | Applications close: Friday, 23 September at 5.00pm

For a copy of the position description, please visit our website. For further information, email careers@wboppho.org.nz. Please apply early as given current demands we will interview as candidates apply.

To be considered for this position you must have a legal right to live and work in New Zealand. You will also need to verify compliance with the health industry Covid-19 vaccination mandate.

At the Primary Health Organisation, we recognise the importance of diversity and inclusion and are committed to providing a working environment that embraces these values.

Our kaupapa

Te Toi Huarewa striving to achieve whai mana (equity), whai ora (quality healthcare) and whai rangatiratanga (sustainability) for all.

Our core beliefs

- Whai mana Achieving health equity for all, particularly for Māori.
- Whanaungatanga Inclusiveness and a sense of belonging.
- Manaakitanga Caring and showing respect for each other.
- Mana Motuhake Enabling people to be in control of their own health and wellbeing.